

Ready for graduation?

FYI
Transition

Students with disabilities, their families, teachers, and other professionals have many questions.

FYI Transition

(www.fyitransition.org) provides helpful information and resources on post-school options.

What will happen after high school?

Where will you work?

Who will help you?

Can you continue school?

What are the possibilities?

What is FYI Transition?

FYI Transition is a web site portal designed to provide students with disabilities, families, teachers and other professionals information to guide decision making about a student's transition from a Florida high school program to adult life.

Resources for Students

- Information on jobs and work opportunities
- Games to play as you think about your transition
- Learn about careers and jobs
- Explore your interests
- Learn about students with disabilities who are now successfully employed
- Get help with resumes and interviewing
- Learn how to get a job
- Find out about self employment
- Learn how to make decisions about your life
- Use a discussion board to share your story and network with other students

Resources for Families

- Success stories to provide examples of opportunities for youth with disabilities
- Social security work incentives
- Family social networking site to connect with others about transition issues
- Discussion board to pose questions to national experts about transition and employment of individuals with disabilities
- Information on transition planning
- Resources on self-determination
- Employment options including self-employment
- Short courses with more information on diploma options, transition, assistive technology, self-determination, and more

Resources for Professionals

- Short courses on transition topics
- Florida transition requirements
- Supporting self determination
- Success stories of individuals with disabilities and their career paths
- Employment opportunities for students
- Understanding work incentives and social security
- Post-secondary opportunities for your students
- National transition resources
- State transition resources
- Discussion board for asking transition and employment experts questions and networking with other professionals

Be prepared... Be informed... Be inspired... Be successful...

www.fyitransition.org

DD FLORIDA DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES COUNCIL, INC.

USF UNIVERSITY OF
SOUTH FLORIDA
COLLEGE OF BEHAVIORAL
& COMMUNITY SCIENCES